A presentation by

Alex Kajitani, Rappin' Mathematician

(2009 California Teacher of the Year, Top 4 Finalist for 2009 National Teacher of the Year, Math Hero by Raytheon, Featured guest on "The Today Show," Middle School Math Teacher)

Friday, May 7, 2010
at Fullerton College
Room 224 - College Center
9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Teaching can be a difficult job. Somehow, teachers have to find ways to connect and apply material that students perceive as both boring and difficult. However, this does not have to be.

California's 2009 Teacher of the Year Alex Kajitani will talk about his approach to teaching and how with a little bit of effort and a whole lot of fun, teaching can be easy and entertaining.
