Call for Reviews/Interviews

Lyric Poetry Review is currently accepting unsolicited reviews and interviews for its upcoming issue. We are looking for engaging non-academic reviews on books of poetry published within the past year, including translations into English. Reviews should be 500 words or less and cover one book only (for longer reviews covering multiple books, please query us first at lyric@lyricreview.org). We are also looking for thought-provoking interviews with contemporary poets. The most successful interviews arise out of the interviewer's own passion for the poet's work and have the feel of a good conversation between friends. Past interviews include Gerald Stern, Matthea Harvey, and Patricia Hampl.

Deadline:
December 1, 2006
