

The UCR Tomás Rivera Endowment & The Department of Creative Writing Present

The Tomás Rivera Conference XXIII

Latino Health in 2010

New Decade New Perspectives

FREE EVENT, FREE PARKING!

APRIL 23rd
FRIDAY

Contact:

(951) 827-5572 TIFFANY &
(951) 827-5070 BRIAN

Information and Registration:

<http://creativewriting.ucr.edu/TomasRiveraConference>

University of California, Riverside
HUB 302 (Central Campus)

12:00 Welcome

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Estela Diesfeld,

Anesthesiologist, Internal Medicine & Pain Management
Ventura, California

Panel on Latino Health Issues and Q & A

Dr. Raúl Ruiz

Emergency Medicine
Rancho Mirage

Prof. Luz Elvia Vera Becerra

Professor of Nutrition
School of Medicine, León, GTO, México

Dr. Martha L. López,

Nutrition, Family & Consumer Sciences
UC Emeritus

Victor Martinez,

National Book Award Winner
Reading poems on healing

2:30 Break Out Sessions

1) Dr. Raúl Ruiz and Dr. Estela Diesfeld - HUB 269

Establishing a Surgery Center, Community Health, Service & Social Justice

2) Dr. Martha L. López & Professor Luz Elvia Vera Becerra - HUB 302

Bi-national Childhood Obesity Project

3) Victor Martinez - HUB 355

On Writing and Publishing Fiction & Poetry

3:30 Features

HUB 302

Featuring the Inlandia Institute's Inauguration of the Inlandia Literary Laureate Award & Riverside ComalArte Elementary School Health Art Exhibit

4:00 Healthy Reception

Art Credit : "Madonna de la Selva" by Alfredo Arreguín. ©1989

Flyer Design by Brian Marcelo

Co-Sponsors: Tomás Rivera Library, CHASS F1RST, Chicano Student Programs, The Inlandia Institute, Office of Student Affairs, Riverside Community College, UCR Palm Desert Graduate Center, Leer Es Triunfar, Alpha Phi Omega, UCRSweenyArtGallery