INLANDIA LITERARY LAUREATE EVENT: SUSAN STRAIGHT AND ANDREW WINER

SPECIAL DUO AUTHOR READING AND DISCUSSIONS

Susan Straight

From National Book Award finalist Straight (Highwire Moon, 2001), comes Take One Candle Light A Room, a searing, ultimately redemptive novel about America's legacy of racial violence and a woman's struggle to forge her own identity. Deeply rooted in the African-American experience, yet filled with insights that resonate for anyone seeking to make a better life without disowning the past.

Susan Straight has published six novels, including Highwire Moon, the 2001 Finalist for the National Book Award, and A Million Nightingales, the 2006 Finalist for the LATimes Book Prize. Her new novel, Take One Candle Light a Room, is a companion to Nightingales.

Andrew Winer

Ambitious, haunting, and stunningly written, The Marriage Artist tells a universal tale of a family dramatically reshaped by the quest for personal freedom in the face of inherited beliefs, public prejudices, and the unfathomable turns of history.

Andrew Winer was recently called a "formidable writer" by world-renowned author Adam Zagajewski. A recipient of a National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship in Fiction, he is the author of the bestselling debut novel The Color Midnight Made. Formerly an artist and art critic, he brings a penetrating vision of art and the art world to his second novel.
