

In the 2010-11 academic year, the Center for Ideas and Society will offer three Lyceum Lectures, one per quarter. The Lyceum Lecture provides an opportunity for the members of the Inland Empire community to hear from a prominent member of the UCR faculty.

The Winter Quarter Lyceum Lecture will be presented by:

Chris Abani, Professor, Creative Writing

Speaking the Unspeakable: The Limits and Power of Witness

This talk explores the uncomfortable tension between our human need to give witness to difficulty and the impossibility of doing it justice. It explores these limits but also argues strongly that it is in fact these limits which can and often are witness's power.

Date: December 2nd

Time: 4:00-5:30 p.m.

Place: CHASS INTS 1113

Refreshments will be served

Seats are limited so please come early

This event is sponsored by the Center for Ideas and Society and is free and open to the public. For more information on the event, please visit our website at ideasandsociety.ucr.edu or join us on Facebook @ Center for Ideas and Society, UCR.
