LUMINA is celebrating its 11th year, and we are pleased to announce that our submission period is now open! We are seeking Poetry, Fiction, and Nonfiction entries from emerging and established writers. We will review work regardless of the author's age, nationality, or school affiliation. Visual arts submissions are also welcome.

We are also accepting submissions for our national poetry contest judged by Carolyn Forché, the acclaimed poet, translator, and social activist. Ms. Forché's notable publications include The Blue Hour, The Angel of History, and the award-winning The Country Between Us. LUMINA will award $500, $200, and $150 prizes for the winning selections.

Writers may submit up to five poems, and up to three prose selections (not exceeding 5000 words). Poets, writers, and artists whose work is accepted for publication will receive a free copy of the 2012 issue and an invitation to read at our launch, held in conjunction with the Sarah Lawrence Poetry Festival on April 22, 2011. Go to www.slclumina.wordpress.com for further information and to submit your work.

LUMINA is an annual print publication produced and edited by a volunteer staff of the graduate writing students at Sarah Lawrence College. In the past, LUMINA has been privileged to feature exceptional works of poetry, fiction, and nonfiction by: Stephen Dobyns, Vijay Seshadri, Suzanne Gardinier, Kate Knapp Johnson, Amy Hempel, Kevin Pilkington, Martha Rhodes, Dennis Nurkse, Kathleen Hill, Mark Doty, Kimiko Hahn, Brenda Hillman, Denise Duhamel, Bill Knott, Matthea Harvey, Rick Moody, Laure-Anne Bosselaar, Jeffrey McDaniel, Phillip Lopate, Zach Schomburg, Nick Flynn, and Ben Yagoda.

Thank you for submitting!
