

YOU'RE INVITED!

Dean Stephen Cullenberg
and Creative Writing Chair Andrew Winer invite Faculty and Staff to

POET LAUREATE ON THE PATIO

a late afternoon of food, music, and reading in honor of

Professor Juan Felipe Herrera's naming by Governor Jerry Brown as California Poet Laureate

Thursday, April 19, 2012

4:30pm - 7:00pm

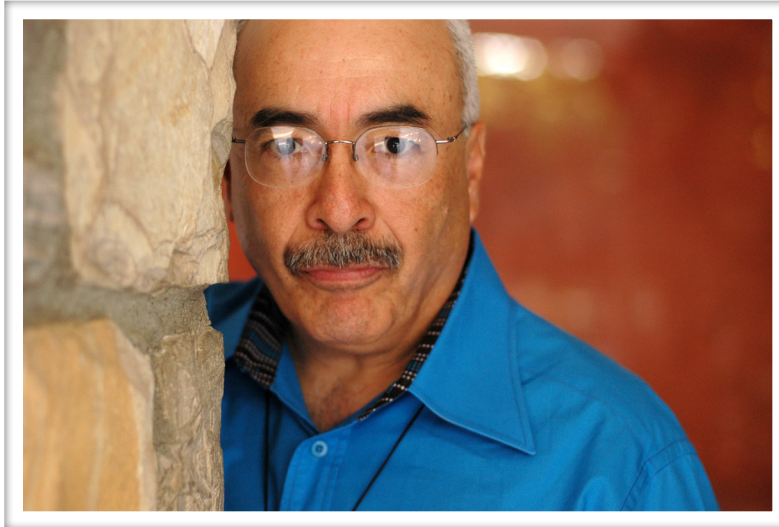

Program begins at 5:15pm

Dean's Patio (3rd floor, HMNSS Bldg)

Come help us celebrate our Poet Laureate, the new voice of California, the man whose goal has always been to give voice to the unheard, the young and old, no matter where they come from or live. We'll also toast the important place of creative writing in expressing the remarkable diversity of this great state and one of its finest institutions, UCR.

Please RSVP to Cindi Smith at cynthia.smith@ucr.edu or x2-3572 on or before Friday, April 13th.

POET LAUREATE ON THE PATIO

Program

4:30pm Food, Drinks and Music begin

5:15 - 5:20 Chair of CRWT speaks about reason for the occasion, introduces everyone

5:20 - 5:25 Chancellor White says a few words

5:25 - 5:30 Dean Cullenberg says a few words

5:30 - 5:40 Juan Felipe Herrera speaks

5:40 - 5:50 Brief readings from students

5:50 - 7:00 Mingling and conversation