

MAUREEN GOSLING –FILM MAKER & AUTHOR– LIVE! @ YOUR LIBRARY

MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 2006 6:30 PM

MEET MAUREEN GOSLING

Hear the author and filmmaker talk about her extraordinary work as editor, producer, and director of documentary films. See her award-winning documentary, BLOSSOMS OF FIRE, a celebratory tribute to the Isthmus Zapotec people of southern Oaxaca, Mexico, whose strong work ethic and fierce independent streak have resulted in powerful women and politics, as well as rich artistic traditions in music and textile arts.

- in Spanish and Zapotec with English subtitles

Maureen Gosling

Gosling will also speak about her young adult book, You Can Be a Woman Moviemaker, and screen a selection from her latest work in progress, BAMAKO CHIC.

RIVERSIDE PUBLIC LIBRARY

3581 Mission Inn Avenue
Riverside, California 92501
(951) 826-5369

FREE FREE FREE

The public is invited FREE of charge thanks to the generosity of the Friends of the Riverside Public Library, the Department of Hispanic Studies, and the Film and Visual Culture Program at the University of California, Riverside

Cultural Arts Program

RIVERSIDE PUBLIC LIBRARY