

---

2009 FEATURED FILMS:

---

Synopsis

An offensive hand gesture on Holocaust Memorial Day sets in motion a tragic series of events ; a gripping Israeli revenge drama. Passive Michael Kleinhouse (Gal Zaid) is out-of-work and wilting under the weight of mounting debt and a crumbling marriage. Entangled in a road rage incident involving his wife Tamar (Keren Mor) and a mysterious driver, Michael becomes agitated with corrupt police who seem powerless to act. In an escalating series of standoffs, he seeks justice on his own terms against the errant motorist, a well-connected gangster, Dreyfus (Asher Tsarfati).

Foul Gesture - Israel
98 mins
Director: Tzahi Grad
Year: 2009

---

Synopsis

The film revolves around a tired and irritable couple, Zakes (Will Ash) and Beth (Christine Bottomley), who are driving home along the M1 motorway. When a white truck narrowly avoids hitting them, its back doors open to reveal a terrified woman caged up and screaming inside. Unsure if what he has seen is real, Zakes calls the police but drives on. Beth is furious that he hasn't done more to help and storms off at the next petrol station. When she doesn't return, Zakes realizes that she too has been snatched by the white truck driver and is forced into a vicious game of cat and mouse with a ruthless killer who has horrifying plans for his human carg.

Hush - UK
90 mins
Director: Mark Tonderai
Year: 2009

---

Synopsis

How do you go about avenging someone you don't remember? Ghajini is one such tale of love and vengeance of a man who suffers from memory loss. Sanjay is a short term memory loss patient and he is trying to find and kill a man named Ghajini who is the killer of his girlfriend, Kalpana.

Gajini - India
181 mins
Director: A. R. Murugadoss
Year: 2009

---

Synopsis

The story of 35 year-old Ivanov, who was once an energetic entrepreneur but is now totally burnt out. He pays no attention to his sick wife and is on the verge of sinking into the depths of despair. Until Sasha, a young and beautiful student, falls in love with and takes it upon herself to save him.

White Night Wedding - Iceland
96 mins
Director: Baltasar Kormákur

© 2007-2009 Riverside International Film Festival • 2009 Site Design by XiCast: www.XiCast.com