

The Mellon Group in Asian/American Literary & Cultural Studies in the 21st Century presents:

Gayatri Gopinath

New York University

Queer ReVisions:

Reframing the Region in Transnational Times

Professor Gopinath, author of Impossible Desires: Queer Diaspora and South Asian Public Cultures, will share her current work-in-progress in a seminar-style format. The paper is available beforehand on the Blackboard site at “Mellon Workshop: Asian/American Literary and Cultural Studies in the 21st Century.” “Queer ReVisions” is a further development of Dr. Gopinath’s article, “Queer Regions: Locating Lesbians in Sancharram,” which is also available on the site. Session respondents will be Professor Jodi Kim (Ethnic Studies) and Crystal Brownell (ABD, English).

Wednesday
20 May 2009

2:00-3:30
INTN 2043

Contact: T. Yamamoto, Dept. of English