

You Are Invited

Reconsidering Our Differences: Redressing Racism, Homophobia, and Intolerance within the UC and Beyond

When: Friday, March 12, 2:00-4:30 PM

Where: INTS 1113

- The recent spate of racist and homophobic hate crimes on UC campuses demands immediate action. This session brings together UCR professors from the social sciences and humanities to analyze the crisis and the underlying conditions that gave rise to it. Why are hate crimes burgeoning now? Why are they happening on UC campuses? How can students and faculty work to combat racism in our UCR community?

- Introduction: T. S. Harvey (Anthropology)
- Panel 1—10 minute presentations by:
- Vorris Nunley (English)
- Keith Harris (Media & Cultural Studies)
- Traise Yamamoto (English)
- Kevin Esterling and Karthick Ramakrishnan (Political Science)
- Juliet McMullin (Anthropology), Colloquium Leader (15 Minutes)

- Panel 2-- 10 minute presentations by:
- Yolanda Moses (Anthropology)
- Anil Deolalikar (Economics)
- Tanya Nieri (Sociology)
- Paul Green (Ethnic Studies)
- Christina Schwenkel (Anthropology), Colloquium Leader (15 minutes)
- Concluding Remarks: Tom Patterson (Anthropology)

- Sponsored by the Anthropology Department