Le Dîner de Cons (The Dinner Game)

France, 1998

Directed by Francis Veber
Starring Thierry Lhermitte, Jacques Villeret,
Francis Huster, Daniel Prévost

The wealthy editor Pierre Brochant and his friends have a competition: every Wednesday, each one of them invites the dumbest person he can find for a dinner, where each one of the guests is invited to talk about himself as much as possible. Later, after the guests say goodbye, the group of friends makes fun and elects the more stupid and imbecile guest. One night, Pierre is forced to have dinner alone with his guest...

Screening #2 (8:00-10:00)

2046

Hong Kong, 2004

Directed by Wong Kar Wai
Starring Tony Leung Chiu Wai, Li Gong, Faye Wong, Ziyi Zhang, Takuya Kimura

2046 is a meditation on memory, eroticism, love, loss, and longing. It follows the adventures of Chow Wo Man, a womaniser who is writing a science fiction novel about a future year in which all memories are suspended. The film shuttles between the world of Chow's futuristic novel and late-'60s Hong Kong--where Chow writes from a hotel room, and engages in relationships with a series of beautiful, complex women.
