

Side by Side

Date: May 4, 2011

Time: 6:00PM - 8:00PM

Location: The Belltower

Various musical performers from on-campus and off-campus putting on a concert to kickoff API Heritage Month.

VSA Xin Sadies: All of the Lights

Date: May 6, 2011

Time: 6:00PM - 9:00PM

Location: HUB 302

Vietnamese Student Association presents XIN SADIES! A night of dancing and fun with a chance to win great prizes.

Sing for Japan! A Karaoke Fundraiser

Date: May 6, 2011

Time: 7:00PM - 9:00PM

Location: UCR Barn

Free Karaoke night at the barn with $5 suggested donation. Sponsored by UCR Extension International Education Programs and UCR Housing Services.

Above and Beyond:

Wong Fu Productions

Date: May 10, 2011

Time: 6:00PM - 9:00PM

Location: HUB 302

Wong Fu Productions will provide an interactive discussion about their experiences in the industry so far and how they started as a company. They will also screen new and unreleased work and hold a Q&A session.

Difference Behind Solidarity

Date: May 12, 2011

Time: 1:00PM - 3:00PM

Location: HUB 268

A discussion & creative writing workshop on building community presented by traci kato-kiriyama.

Senryu Taiko Presents:

A Tale of Four Drummers

Date: May 14, 2011

Time: 8:00PM - 9:30PM

Doors Open @ 7:30pm

Location: University Theater

Four friends journey through the land of taiko on a quest for home.

One Mic Stand for Japan

Date: May 18, 2011

Time: 6:00PM - 10:00PM

Location: The Belltower

A benefit concert made up of YouTube stars and student performers that have YouTube notoriety. There will be several student organizations and fraternities that will be out selling food and coming together for Japan tsunami relief.

HIV & STI 101 Game and Discussion

Date: May 19, 2011

Time: 2:00PM - 3:30PM

Location: HUB 379

Workshop/discussion on HIV and STIs in the Asian American community presented by the Asian Pacific AIDS Intervention Team.

PISA Luau

Date: May 20, 2011

Time: 6:00PM - 9:00PM

Location: HUB 302

Pacific Islander Student Alliance presents their 3rd Annual Luau. Enjoy the food, cultural dance, and various musical performances of the Polynesian Islands!

eRACEing the Lines: Pushing Past the Polite

Date: May 21, 2011

Time: 9:00AM - 4:30PM

Location: HUB

Diminishing social and cultural borders one student at a time, eRACEing the Lines: multi-cultural Youth conference creates opportunities for high school students to come together and define the problems their communities face.

Leadership and Service Awards Banquet

Date: May 25, 2011

Time: 6:00PM - 8:00PM

Location: HUB 302 South

Asian Pacific Student Program's annual Leadership and Service Awards Banquet honors the accomplishments over the past year of students, student clubs & organizations, faculty and staff.

Raise the Roof

Date: May 26, 2011

Time: 6:00PM - 9:00PM

Location: HUB Plaza

A night celebrating our community, where students join together, sharing each others' cultures' dances, food, and history. It is a unity show to showcase the different cultures and talents of a university that prides itself on its diversity. It will be a night of self-education and awareness among peers of the various cultural organizations on campus. Uniting through dance, music, song, poetry, and means of expression.

HSA Cultural Show

Date: May 28, 2011

Time: 6:30PM - 9:00PM

Location: HUB 302 South

Hmong Student Association presents "Kuv Tus Nkauj Zaj" (My Dragon Princess) original playwright by Eric Vue. Come join us for a night of Hmong culture expressed through song, dance and storytelling.

RISE ABOVE

Watch, my anxious wings struggling to fly.
I stretch them out wide but forget it,
"Come down, sky!"
No use, my courage is beat.
I can't do this, look at my trembling feet.
They feel so heavy, so weak.
It rains, I am wet. I take a step back.
Oh no, the sky is turning black.
I fear I will never make it out there.
Wipe my tears, stretch my back. Try again.
This time, here comes my friend.

I squint my eyes, is that more flocking by?
They approach me and point my courage towards the sky.
All of a sudden clouds form and mock our spirit.
We stare at each other wondering if we will make it.
Smiles rippling all around and then it hits me.
And together we lift off into the dark.
Flying free, we Rise Above.

Asian Pacific Student Programs
Costo Hall 244 | (951) 827-7272
apsp.ucr.edu