

24th Annual

Tomás Rivera Conference

40th Anniversary of Chicano Student Programs

Presents An Evening with

Sandra Cisneros

SIETE NOCHES/SEVEN NIGHTS

Cisneros' books, House on Mango Street, Woman Hollering Creek, and Caramelo, all evoke the power of words to tell a meaningful part of America's history. Her work has been translated to more than a dozen languages and speaks to readers through the shared stories of culture and memories.

"I'm especially sensitive to the power a word has. It's not a word, it's a way of looking at the world. It's a way of looking at meaning." —Sandra Cisneros

Presentation will be followed by a panel, book signing and light reception
