- Good class over the summer, didn't feel like the workload was too much or too little. I actually enjoyed that the rubric for the assignments were so direct.
- We go over a lot of materials in class, so it would've been helpful if the slides had some bullet notes (artist bio and some short notes on the video pieces) so that we could go back and review the materials. Personally, I would like it if you had done announcements for the assignments and gone over what you expected from us during class because the assignment descriptions are very vague.
