Notes regarding AHS 29X courses:

All AHS 29X courses are graded S/NC (satisfactory/no credit). These units do not receive a letter grade.

- 1 unit of AHS 292 is required in conjunction with each upper-division AHS lecture course in order for the lecture course to meet graduate degree requirements. For upper-division lecture courses in other departments, see the department's Graduate Coordinator for their 292 policy.
- AHS 297 is most appropriate for PhD students preparing for written or oral qualifying exams. AHS 299 is appropriate for MA and PhD students who are writing their thesis or dissertation.
- AHS 298-I is a 1-4 unit course representing academic credit for a paid or unpaid internship.

Each unit of AHS 29X represents the equivalent of three hours of work per week for the entire quarter, even if you do not register at the start of the quarter.

AHS 29X project agreement forms are due to the Graduate Coordinator no later than Friday of Week 3. All written work is due to the instructor no later than Friday of Week 10. Failure to meet this deadline will result in a grade of "NC" (no credit).

1. What is the work you propose to accomplish for the unit(s) entered above (i.e., the specific topic and materials to be studied)? Attach a bibliography/reading list if one is available.
2. What is the written form that this work will take; a term paper, a series of book reviews, etc.?
