Jim and Georgia Steinhart Photography Collection Endowed Fund

We have instituted monthly meetings without donor as learn as much as possible about the architecture and of the collection while we have the benefit of Jim Steinhart directly. Our next meeting is scheduled for April 18.

Unfortunately, this meeting may need to be moved. Back in 2022, Jim transferred a disk the collection to the CMP for safe-keeping as an additional back-up. Our preliminary work was dependent upon access to materials on the drive. To date, we have not been able to retrieve any files. I will likely speak with Jim this week and request a new hard drive be sent.

ImageCloud Online Collection

Earlier this month, we surpassed 31,000 images.

Roba di Roma Collection

No substantive changes. We are in conversation with the CDL as we prepare to move our Roba di Roma collection, hosted on ITHAKA (JSTOR), to an OAI server for harvesting. We hope to complete this project in the coming months.

Images for Publication

VRC has been exceptionally busy researching and clearing images for publication. We are currently working on two book projects. The volume on this front has been exceptional.

Hosted Courses

We are hosting three courses for spring: AHS 015, AHS 111 and AHS 181

NEH: The Color Film Emergency Project Implementation Grant

We presented at the Association of Architecture School Librarians in NOLA on 3/21. Our presentation was very well-received and it appears that we may have picked up an additional processing partner at NJIT. Additionally, we have been working with the Dean of Library & Special Programs at Whitworth University to establish an additional donation of materials and the potential establishment of a local internship.

Of course, by now everyone is aware that were we impacted by DOGE's cuts to the NEH. To aid the discussion we will have in person, I include two images illustrating the language for billing reimbursements and advances. I've included this herein to facilitate the discussion of recouping pledged funds.

Gluck Fellows program for the Arts:

The VRC offered a second family programming event at the Riverside Arlington Library on March 14. It was well-attended. We have since been asked to present at the Riverside Main branch. I suggested we considered at some point during the summer months.
