This is the second of four artist's talks by candidates for the position of Assistant Professor in the Art Department.

Won Ju Lim is a Korean American artist whose multimedia practice is grounded in the interactions of sculpture and architecture.

A 2024 Guggenheim Fellow, Lim's work has been exhibited worldwide in 40+ solo and 70+ group exhibitions, including those at the Elzig Museum in Istanbul, the Museum of Contemporary Art in Los An-

Museum, the Hammer Museum in Los Angeles, Museum of Art in Seoul, Ullens Center for Contemporary Art in Beijing, Schirn Kunsthalle in Frankfurt, ZKM Museum fur Neue Kunst in Karlsruhe, and Museum der Moderne in Salzurg.

Lim holds a Bachelor's degree in Architecture from Woodbury University and an MFA in Studio Art from Art Center College of Design in Pasadena.

Self Annihilation Act II, 2024
Mirrored Plexiglas, vinyl, sound, performance.
Dimensions variable.

Won Ju Lim, Wednesday, April 23, 2:30 pm, INTN 1128