

This is the third of four artist's talks by candidates for the position of Assistant Professor in the Art Department.

Sahar Khoury (b. 1973) was born in Chicago, IL and lives and works in Oakland, CA. Trained in anthropology, she worked for many years on community-based research projects concerning structural vulnerability within Latinx migrant labor communities. Khoury developed her art practice within the Bay Area's queer community of the late 1990s and 2000s, while working at San Francisco State University as a research assistant.

Khoury's work has been exhibited at the Gwangju Biennale Pavilion, Wexner Center for the Arts, John M. Kohler Art Center, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (where she was the recipient of the 2019 SECA Art Award), Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, The Wattis Institute, Rebecca Camacho Projects, and

She received her BA in Anthropology from UC Santa Cruz in 1996 and her MFA From UC Berkeley in 2013. She teaches ceramics and sculpture at UC Berkeley and California College of the Arts (CCA).

Sahar Khoury, Monday, April 28, 2:30 pm, INTN 1128