THIS PETITION MUST BE FILED WITH THE DEPARTMENT NO LATER THAN ONE (1) MONTH PRIOR TO THE FIRST WEEK OF INSTRUCTION OF THE NEXT QUARTER.

The Art History Department translation exam focuses on language competency for art historical research in the specified language. The exam consists of one (1) passage of around 400 words, in the relevant language; students are given three (3) hours to translate the passages with a dictionary (online dictionaries may not be used). The exam will be administered and graded by a faculty member. Passages chosen for translation may be drawn from any field of Art History and are not tailored in student's area of expertise. Grading is based on a deep understanding of the language in their translation and will be graded accordingly.

If a student does not pass the exam they will be given the option of taking one (1) makeup exam the first week of the succeeding quarter. The makeup exam will consist of one (1) passage of around 400 words and the student will be given two hours to complete the translation, again with a dictionary.
