

Artist Talk: JIMENA SARNO

is an interdisciplinary artist and educator

Stitching Songs and Myths Together

Her work has been featured in solo exhibitions at MASS MoCA, born in Buenos Aires, Argentina and living in Los Angeles.

Pitzer College Art

Galleries, REDCAT, Clockshop LA,

Human Resources,

18th Street Arts Center,

Visitor Welcome Center, LACE and

Grand Central Art Center, and group exhibitions at The Mistake Room,

Vincent Price Art Museum, The Museum of Latin American Art, and The San Diego Art Institute among others.

With

a focus on the sensorial and affective experiences shaped

by political subjecthood,

she works across a range of media including installation, moving image, sound, text and sculpture.

Wednesday, March 4, 2026

12:00 – 1:00 PM

INTS 1128

Image caption: Rhapsody (2025 - ongoing) film, sound, textile and sculpture in 16mm film and Super 8 film transferred to video. Color. Sculptural elements: rocking chairs, custom made speakers with woven grills. Credit: J.

Sarno's work has been supported by grants from the California Arts Council, the California

Community Foundation Fellowship for Visual Artists,

the Foundation for Contemporary Art and the Lucas Artist Fellowship in Visual Arts at Montalvo Art Center.

