

Art History & Fine Arts

For students of Art History and the Fine Arts, Paris is a living gallery and a constant source of inspiration.

At AUP Summer School we aim to help students harness their creativity and invite you to join us for one of our innovative offerings in the arts.

Program Dates

Classes are offered in June and July in 3-week or 6-week formats as indicated below:

June 3-week classes (June 2 - June 23, 2026):

- Paris through its Architecture
- Impressionism and Post-Impressionism
- Modeling Paris

July 3-week classes (June 30 - July 22, 2026):

- Global Art Through Paris Museums
- Painting Paris

6-week classes (June 2 - July 15, 2026):

- Introduction to Art through Paris Museums

About AUP Summer School

The American University of Paris Summer School allows you to immerse yourself in French culture and history while earning credits toward your degree or as part of your continuing education by auditing classes. Our summer classes provide the ideal mixture of in-class learning and creative exploration of Paris, combining the best of our academic programs with excursions and events around the city.

For more information

- Visit www.aup.edu/summer
- Write to admissions@aup.edu