

After Grad: Academic Pathways Week

November 16-20, 2020

Interested in pursuing a career in academia? Join us for a week-long series of panels and workshops designed to promote preparation and success in your academic career. All sessions will be held on Zoom. See the weekly schedule on the next page and email gsrc@ucr.edu with any questions.

Register at
<https://gsrc.ucr.edu/aftergrad/apw>

HTTPS://GSRC.UCR.EDU

@UCRGRADSUCCESS

UCR FACULTY PANEL

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 2020 | 3-4:20PM

Hear directly from recently hired UCR faculty as they discuss how to navigate an academic job search and the application process.

AN INTRODUCTION TO ACADEMIC COVER LETTERS TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2020 | 11-11:50AM

Learn the basics of effective academic cover letters and how you can better market your academic skills to a hiring committee. Make your cover letter stand out!

ADVANCED ACADEMIC COVER LETTER CLINIC TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2020 | 2-2:50PM

Bring the announcements for any jobs you are applying to and a draft of your cover letter; work with Graduate Writing Center consultants to tailor your cover letter to fit specific positions. Space is limited.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS BY DR. SHARDÉ M. DAVIS WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 2020 | 10-11:20 AM

Join Dr. Shardé M. Davis, Assistant Professor in the Department of Communication at the University of Connecticut and the creator of #BlackintheVory, to hear her keynote address, #BlackintheVory: Amplifying the Voices of Blackacademic TruthTellers About Anti-Black Racism.

COFFEE SOCIAL

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 2020 | 3-4PM

Join us for a virtual coffee social to talk to Graduate Writing Center staff and find out how they can help you with your academic job market application materials, such as your CV, cover letter, diversity statement, research statement, and so on.

ACADEMIC JOB SEARCHES IN THE AGE OF COVID: DISCOVERING OPPORTUNITIES IN THE CRISIS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2020 | 1-1:50PM

Being in the academic job market during a pandemic and an economic downturn does not have to be all doom and gloom. Join our guest speaker, Dr. Christine Kelly, Director of the Career Development Office at Claremont Graduate University, to learn how to strategize your academic job search.

UCR POSTDOCS PANEL

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 2020 | 1-2:20PM

Learn from UCR post-doctoral fellows about how postdoctoral positions may fit into a larger academic career trajectory and hear their experiences around the search and application process, position requirements, and time management.

Register at
<https://gsrc.ucr.edu/aftergrad/apw>