

Seeking Research Study Participants: Latine/x/a/o who Applied to Doctoral Programs Fall of 2021 or Winter of 2022 for Fall 2022 Doctoral Admission

UCI sociology researchers are recruiting participants for a longitudinal study that aims to understand the forms of support and challenges that shape the doctoral application process and/or experiences while enrolled in a doctoral program.

To be eligible, you must meet all of the following criteria:

- ✓ Identify as Latine/x/a/o or Hispanic, and
- ✓ Are at least 18 years of age or older, and
- ✓ Applied to a social science or STEM doctoral program(s) Fall of 2021 or Winter of 2022 for admission into a doctoral program Fall of 2022 (regardless of whether you were admitted or are enrolling in a doctoral program) and
- ✓ Applied to doctoral program(s) Fall of 2021 or Winter of 2022 for admission into a doctoral program Fall of 2022 at any of the following universities: University of California, Irvine or, University of California, Santa Barbara or University of California, Riverside.

Participation involves:

- Completing a short demographic survey
- Participating in up to three 60-90 minute interviews through Zoom which will take place 1) Fall 2022, 2) Spring/Summer 2023, and 3) Spring/Summer 2024.
- Compensation: $40 Amazon gift card after each interview. Participants that participate in 3 interviews will receive $120 in Amazon gift cards.

Please contact lead researcher, Maricela Bañuelos, if interested: maricelb@uci.edu (626) 224-7449

