

The "UNARCHIVING BLACKNESS"
2022-2023 Mellon Sawyer
Seminar at UC Riverside presents
"The Afterlives of Slavery and Colonialism" Fall 2022.

F, OCTOBER 28, 2022

12:30PM - 2PM PST

Attend in person: INTS 1113

To attend via Zoom register: <https://tinyurl.com/UCRUBMS>

BEYOND BLACK IS THE JOURNEY

A specialist in the field of Africana Studies, Dr. Soumahoro has conducted research and taught in several universities and prisons in the United States and France. She is the author of Le Triangle et l'Hexagone, réflexions sur une identité noire (La Découverte, 2021), translated into English by Dr. Kaiama L. Glover as Black Is the Journey, Africana the Name (Polity, 2021). This book received the FetKann! Maryse Condé literary prize in 2020.

Maboula Soumahoro

CO-SPONSORED BY: CENTER FOR IDEAS AND SOCIETY
ideasandsociety.ucr.edu/unarchiving-blackness
QUESTIONS? CONTACT JODY.BENJAMIN@UCR.EDU

