

Dissertation Year Fellowships and UC Pre-Professoriate Fellowships

These awards have changed. We will no longer be providing GRMP fellowships and programs will no longer receive guaranteed allocated fellowships. Instead, the purpose of these programs is to relieve students of teaching or equivalent to focus on their dissertation work and to complete their PhD in a timely manner.

Dissertation Fellowship Awards

Dissertation Year Fellowship Awards (DYFAs)

DYFAs provide a year of funding (3 quarters) to PhD students who expect to complete their degree program in the upcoming academic year. Thus, a DYFA awarded in Winter 2024 can be used starting Summer/Fall 2024.

Three students will be awarded DYFAs covering 3 quarters of stipend and tuition for each student ($12,000 / quarter) and $1000. Students are required to attend an award ceremony at UCOP in the Fall with travel costs provided by the Graduate Division..

Dissertation Completion Fellowship Awards (DCFAs)

DCFAs provide up to 2 quarters of stipend and tuition ($10,000 / quarter) to students to support the completion of their PhD in the current academic year. Thus, a DCFA awarded in Winter 2024 can be used in Spring and, if necessary, Summer of 2024.

For all Dissertation Fellowships, the dissertation advisor and the Graduate Advisor will be required to acknowledge the student's thesis timeline and the plan to graduate within the period of award.

Review Process

1. Application forms will be available and filled out online.
2. Graduate Programs will generate their internal review process to determine nominations. This should be by committee to minimize conflicts of interest.
3. Student applications will be accessible to the program review committee via Slate. (<https://grad.ucr.edu/manage/>).
4. Graduate Programs will be provided a number of nominations dependent on the size of the program (Table 1 and 2).

Table 1

Number of Students in Program	Number of nominations
25-50	2
51-100	3
>100	4

5. Graduate Programs will be allowed one additional nomination for the HSI-DD UC President’s Pre-Professoriate Fellow Program.
6. If prior DCFA’s have not graduated at the time of nomination allocation (October of each year), program nomination allocations will be reduced.
7. It is expected that the success rate will be around 50% with ~100 quarters of support being awarded.

Review Criteria

- All fellowships award excellence in the student’s discipline.
- There is considerable and intended diversity in discipline within the Graduate Council therefore to aid members of the Graduate Council in the reviewing process, Graduate Programs are required to submit justification for why a student excels in their discipline. Part of that justification should be in the form of a Graduate Program specific rubric generated by the program to highlight by what criteria students are evaluated.
- A Diversity Statement is required for all fellowship applications.
- The Research Statement should be written in a manner that allows readers from all disciplines to understand the importance and impact of the research.
- Please let your students know that writing advice specifically for these awards can be provided by Grad Success’ Writing Center.

Timeline

- Deadlines for all nominations is January 16th each year.
- Nominations will be uploaded by Graduate Advisors via Slate - no applications will be directly accepted from students.
- Graduate Division will check the eligibility of nominees.
- Graduate Council will review applications and awards will be announced and made at the end of the Winter quarter.
