

Environmental Sci GSA Presents:
Q + A with Filmmaker
Michelle Aguilar
This Thursday!

"An introverted Latino farmer finds himself representing a public movement to save a lush garden centered within his cherished community. Over time he finds out first hand what happens when ethnic livelihoods and migrated farming traditions intersect with the 'Urban Growth Machine' and gentrification."

30 min film length (reg below for link)
Sponsored by Dr. Marilyn Fogel (CNAS
Equity Advisor), hosted by ENSC Mini-GSA
