

SEEDS Introductory Meeting Agenda

17 November 2020

Agenda:

- Introductions
 - Introductions
 - Depending on size of group, icebreaker activity
- What is SEEDS?
 - Goal: Helping undergraduate students get more involved in research in environmental science, conservation, and ecology
 - Field trips to nearby parks to meet with park employees, land managers
 - Local restoration efforts
 - Local research projects
 - Main push this quarter: Involvement in research despite campus closure
 - R'Nights with Elijah Hall
 - Individual/group research projects for undergraduates- ideas:
 - Raking project
 - iNaturalist data
 - LTER datasets
 - Opportunities to present in spring quarter at EcoSlam!
 - Movie nights to meet other folks interested in environmental science
 - Careers in ecology- panel with grad students
- BioBlitz this week!
 - How to participate
 - How to see results
- What is everyone here interested in?
 - Breakout rooms!