

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

DEI Graduate Summit

The DEI Graduate Summit will provide workshops and interactive scenarios covering a variety of diverse topics, from DEI basics to inclusive classroom strategies, pedagogy, research, best practices, and more.

September 8-11,
2020
9:00am-1:00pm

Any questions or concerns,
please contact: willis.harris@ucr.edu

DIVERSITY
EQUITY INCLUSION

Session One: DEI Basics September 8th

This session will introduce concepts that will set the context for the sessions that follow. We will explore concepts, including inclusive excellence, privilege, intersectionality and much more, engage in interactive scenarios, and review resources.

Register Here

Session Two: Inclusive Classroom Climate Strategies September 9th

Explore classroom power dynamics and discover how inclusive classrooms are spaces in which instructors and students work collectively to produce and nurture an environment in which everyone feels protected, supported, and emboldened to express their views and concerns.

Register Here

Session Three: Pedagogy- Research and Best Practices September 10th

Learn pedagogical strategies that embrace diverse learning styles and research-driven practical tips for achieving educational success for all students with comprehensive cognitive approaches..

Register Here

Session Four: Inclusive Syllabi, Grading, Testing, and Other Assessment Practices September 11th

Examine concepts and practices that create a more inclusive learning environment with innovative assignments, exam structures, and other measures of learning outcomes that promote a climate of collective knowledge production.

Register Here

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

2020
GRADUATE SUMMIT