NC STATE

PIGS, POULTRY, THE PLANET, AND DATA-DRIVEN PROBLEM SOLVING

A Research & Extension Experience for Undergraduates Summer Program – virtual in 2021!

Applications due February 15, 2021

- Gain skills in data science, data-driven problem solving, holistic evaluation of food animal production systems, global thinking, and technical communications
- Work on a data-driven research project under the supervision of two faculty mentors
- Receive a stipend and support to attend a virtual conference

- Visit poultry and swine production facilities in North Carolina to gain hands-on experience. Tentatively planned as a 1-week in-person orientation, but subject to change due to the pandemic.
- Network with industry professionals in the food animal production and data analytics industries

Learn more at https://p4.rbind.io