

THE NEXT CHAPTER: A POST-INAUGURATION TOWN HALL CHARTING THE PATH FORWARD AT UCR

Hosted by the Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion w/ Campus Partners

As the nation begins a new chapter following the inauguration of the newly elected U.S. President, we invite you to a post-inauguration town hall to discuss what lies ahead of our campus community and the country.

Moderated by:

Mariam Lam, Vice Chancellor for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

In partnership with:

Office of Governmental & Community Relations	Office of International Affairs
Office of Legal Affairs	Counseling & Psychological Services
Undocumented Student Programs	UC Legal Immigrant Center
LGBT Resource Center	Office of the Ombuds
HSI Committee
AANAPISI Committee

Discussion Focus:

- Preparing for any potential executive orders or other national policies on higher education, diversity, equity, and inclusion with UCOP and UCR Priorities
- Building on actionable strategies to foster civic engagement and strengthen campus community resilience
- Open Q&A with Campus Leaders

Date: January 27, 2025

Time: 12:00 to 1:30 PM

Location: Via Zoom

For more information, contact

Tasha Hudson at

tasha.hudson@ucr.edu

Zoom Registration Required:

https://ucr.zoom.us/meeting/register/qile4dj9TJG_kGApL4cjPA