

MANAGEMENT ANALYST CONSERVATION

MANAGEMENT ANALYST - CONSERVATION - Coachella Valley Association of Governments (CVAG) - (Starting Salary: $74,139 - $92,369 annually, plus benefits). Full-time position, under the direction of the Conservation Director, responsible for the coordination of the biological monitoring and land management program for the Coachella Valley Multiple Species Habitat Conservation Plan (CVMSHCP). Performs a wide variety of complex administrative and analytical duties, coordinates conservation efforts with state and federal agencies, non-profit organizations, and other contractors on behalf of the Coachella Valley Conservation Commission (CVCC). Ability to gather and compile facts and statistics; to evaluate program effectiveness and forecasting; prepare and review contractual and regulatory documents; prepare and maintain complex program records and systems applications; strong writing abilities are essential. Opportunities to work from home or remotely will be considered.

REQUIREMENTS: Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college preferably with a major in biology, ecology, natural resources, conservation, or a related field. APPLY BY: Open until filled with first review on February 18, 2022.

CVAG application, supplemental questions, resume, and cover letter required.

Application and full job description may be obtained at:

<https://www.cvag.org/employment.htm> or by calling (760) 346-1127.