

MANAGEMENT ANALYST – GIS/DATABASE

MANAGEMENT ANALYST – GIS/DATABASE - Coachella Valley Association of Governments (CVAG)

- (Starting Salary: $74,139 - $92,369 annually, plus benefits). Full-time position, performs a variety of tabular and geospatial database management and administration tasks for CVAG and the Coachella Valley Conservation Commission (CVCC), including the tracking of impact fee payments, organization of conservation data, and intaking real time traffic data. Support team members by providing technical and analytical insight to conservation and transportation programs. This position will assist with managing metadata and data storage structure, as well as streamlining workflows for construction projects, traffic management, land management, and impact fee analyses. Initial tasks include identifying potential enterprise database systems that accommodate the diverse data storage needs of the organization. Subsequent tasks include organizing and accessing data infrastructure for internal and external stakeholders, geospatial and database tool development to expediate analysis, and strategic planning discussions. Opportunities to work from home or remotely will be considered.

REQUIREMENTS: Bachelor's Degree (BA/BS) in data science, geography, planning, environmental science, conservation, transportation, or related field, or at least four years of applied GIS experience utilizing Esri software and products, including two years of database management experience.

APPLY BY: Open until filled with first review on February 18, 2022. CVAG application, supplemental questions, resume, and cover letter required. Application and full job description may be obtained at: <https://www.cvag.org/employment.htm> or by calling (760) 346-1127.

CVAG application, supplemental questions, resume and cover letter required.

Applications and full job description may be obtained at:

www.cvag.org/employment.htm or by calling (760) 346-1127.