

THE UCLA SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND INFORMATION STUDIES
AND THE
UC RIVERSIDE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

PRESENT

Do Politics in our Democracy, Prevent Schooling for Democracy?

A conversation about the political conflicts confronting schools and the larger implications for learning and democracy

MODERATED BY

Emily Richmond

Public Editor, Education Writers Association, Host, EWA Radio

FEATURING

John Rogers

UCLA Professor of Education, Director, Institute for Democracy, Education & Access

Joseph Kahne

Dutton Presidential Professor of Education Policy and Politics, Co-Director of the Civic Engagement Research Group, UC Riverside

Vernon M. Billy

CEO & Executive Director, California School Boards Association

Daniel Domenech

Executive Director, AASA - The School Superintendents Association

Michael B. Matsuda

Superintendent, Anaheim Union High School District

Olivia Krauth

Education Reporter, Louisville Courier-Journal

JOIN US FOR AN ENGAGING WEBINAR

Tuesday, November 2, 2021 – 12:30 pm PST

Register Here

Recent months have seen a rise in heated rhetoric and hostile threats that have interfered with classroom instruction and disrupted school board meetings. In this contentious environment fueled by reactions to Covid-19 health policies and issues of race, this webinar explores what's happening in school communities, what education leaders can do to safeguard democratic governance and civic learning, and importantly, how we can all stand up for democracy. Highlighting new research from UCLA and UC Riverside.

CO-SPONSORED BY ICIVICS & EDUCATING FOR AMERICAN DEMOCRACY