

Graduate Student Researcher HSI Initiatives

We are seeking a Graduate Student Researcher to assist in the ongoing development of interventions and in preparation of HSI related grant proposals. The position will start as a 25% or 24% GSR appointment in the Winter 2022. Upon satisfactory review and funding availability, the position may be extended beyond winter quarter. This position will report to Professor Estela Gavosto and collaborate with Arlene Cano Matute, Assistant Director in Chicano Student Programs.

Responsibilities

- Support the coordination of programming data, special projects and initiatives related to educational equity, retention and graduation of Chicana/o/x and Latina/o/x students
- Data collection tasks, including but not limited to, querying institutional data from UCR and national databases like NCES, compiling data from national reporting databases and writing reports from findings
- Research tasks, which may include but not limited to, conducting literature reviews, coordinating with participating collaborators, and analyzing and verifying data
- Conduct assessments and accountability measures to help provide data to the proposals
- Collaborate and outreach to Staff, Faculty and other campus partners at UCR to engage them in the work of the proposals

Required Qualifications

- Currently enrolled graduate student at UCR
- Familiarity with programs serving Chicana/o/x and Latina/o/x students in higher education
- Excellent writing and oral communication skills
- Excellent organizational skills and the ability to manage multiple projects and priorities
- Commitment to furthering diversity, equity, and inclusion

Preferred Qualification

- Graduate students in good standing who will have advanced to candidacy by January 3, 2022
- Ability to synthesize and integrate information from multiple data sources
- Experience with data analysis

To apply: Send a statement of interest and your resume/CV by January 7, 2022 to Estela.Gavosto@ucr.edu

Estela A. Gavosto

Professor of Teaching, Department of Mathematics
Special Advisor to the Dean of CNAS in STEM Initiatives
College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences

Arlene Cano Matute

Co-Chair, UCR Hispanic Serving Institution Committee
Assistant Director, Chicano Student Programs