

Supplemental Questions

Title Department Office of TRIO Pre-College Programs General Information Last Name First Name Are you enrolled in school right now? If yes, are you a full-time graduation date? Yes No Yes No Are you able to work up to 20 If you answered no, please explain any time constraints in your schedule that would prevent you from working 20 hours a week. Yes No UCR strives to accommodate applicants with disabilities. In the event that your disability prevents you from completing this application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achieverent of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected vetaren status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for r	Position
General Information Middle Last Name First Name Middle Are you enrolled in school right now If yes, are you a full-time student? What is your expected graduation date? Are you eligible for Work/Study? Pes No Pes No Pes No Pes No Pes No Pes No Pes No Pes No Ves No Pes No Pes No Pes No UCR strives to accommodate applicants with disabilities. In the event that your disability prevents you from completing this application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected vetran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to	Title			Department
Last Name First Name Middle Are you enrolled in school right If yes, are you a full-time What is your expected Are you eligible for Work/Study? now? Image: Student? Image: Student: Student? Image: Student?				Office of TRIO Pre-College Programs
Are you enrolled in school right If yes, are you a full-time student? What is your expected graduation date? Are you eligible for Work/Study?
now? student? graduation date? Yes No Are you able to work up to 20 If you answerd no, please explain any time constraints in your schedule that would prevent you from working 20 hours a week. Yes No UCR strives to accommodate applicants with disabilities. In the event that your disability prevents you from completing this application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at http://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen_reader_optimized.pdf and the Non-discrimination Provision at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and stututes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. If you is the und be the formation on the employment a	Last Name First		First Nam	ame Middle		Middle now? student? graduation date? Yes No Are you able to work up to 20 If you answerd no, please explain any time constraints in your schedule that would prevent you from working 20 hours a week. Yes No UCR strives to accommodate applicants with disabilities. In the event that your disability prevents you from completing this application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at http://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen reader optimized.pdf and the Non-discrimination Provision at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination posting.pdf. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnishe on these policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information furnished on these forms may be used by various universi
Yes No Yes No Are you able to work up to 20 hours per week? If you answered no, please explain any time constraints in your schedule that would prevent you from working 20 hours a week. If you answered no, please explain any time constraints in your schedule that would prevent you from working 20 hours a week. UCR strives to accommodate applicants with disabilities. In the event that your disability prevents you from completing this application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms i			е		Are you eligit	ole for Work/Study?
Are you able to work up to 20 hours per week? If you answered no, please explain any time constraints in your schedule that would prevent you from working 20 hours a week. UCR strives to accommodate applicants with disabilities. In the event that your disability prevents you from completing this application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will give used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law.		Student?		graduation date?
hours per week? working 20 hours a week. UCR strives to accommodate applicants with disabilities. In the event that your disability prevents you from completing this application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information on the septicant survey and self-identification form is contance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on the explications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. </td <td></td> <td colspan="2"></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td>
Yes No UCR strives to accommodate applicants with disabilities. In the event that your disability prevents you from completing this application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will pervent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are				any time constraints in your sched	ule that would	prevent you from UCR strives to accommodate applicants with disabilities. In the event that your disability prevents you from completing this application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at https://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen_reader_optimized.pdf and the Non-discrimination Provision at http://obs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicants or employment. Furnishing the information on the employment applicate smale be and chademic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Informa application, please contact the Disability Management Office at (951) 827-4785 for assistance. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at https://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster screen reader optimized.pdf and the Non-discrimination Provision at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purpose cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. III. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information will section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Manuel Sectint 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. <li< td=""><td colspan="6"></td></li<>
 The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at https://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen_reader_optimized.pdf The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 199
 the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at https://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen_reader_optimized.pdf The state of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information on the applicant survey and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any
 the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at https://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen_reader_optimized.pdf The state of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information on the same by availus university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are	The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer with a strong institutional commitment to protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at https://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen_reader_optimized.pdf and the Non-discrimination Provision at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the Universit
 For more information about your EEO rights as an applicant, please review the EEO is the Law Poster at https://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen_reader_optimized.pdf and the Non-discrimination Provision at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Rep
 https://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen_reader_optimized.pdf and the Non-discrimination Provision at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information at a self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security Report of any campus of t	protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.
 https://www.eeoc.gov/employers/upload/poster_screen_reader_optimized.pdf and the Non-discrimination Provision at http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information at a self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security Report of any campus of t http://jobs.ucr.edu/docs/nondiscrimination_posting.pdf. The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security and Crime Report is available University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available
 The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery./tml. The report contains a summary of crimes following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security Report of any campus of the diversity at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves. I. The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security Report of any campus of the diversity at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes 	The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 (effective, July 1978) requires the University to provide the
 The principal purposes for requesting self-identify information is for affirmative action administration. University policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes policy, state and federal statutes, which are available in the Human Resources Equal Employment & Affirmative Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes Action Office, authorize the maintenance of this information. Information furnished on these forms may be used by various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html.
 various university departments for the purposes cited in those policies and statutes and will be given to state and federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes federal agencies if required by law. II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes
 II. Furnishing the information on the employment application form is mandatory; failure to provide the information will prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes prevent evaluation of your qualifications for employment. Furnishing the information on the applicant survey and self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes self-identification forms is voluntary; there is no penalty for not completing the form. III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html.
 III. Individuals have the right to review their own records in accordance with Staff Personnel Policy 80 and Academic Personnel Manuel Section 160. Information on these policies may be obtained from the campus Human Resources and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes and Academic Personnel Offices. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes
Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes	and Academic Personnel Offices.
Notification with regard to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes	Joanna Clawy Disalaawaa af Campus Saawiity Daliay & Campus Oning Statistics as provided by the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes					in Crima Stat	intion Act of 1009 prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Annual Security Report of any campus of the University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes University at which they are considering employment. The UC Riverside Campus Security and Crime Report is available at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes at the following website: Security Report - http://police.ucr.edu/clery/clery.html. The report contains a summary of crimes reported on the campus and in other designated areas during the past three calendar years. It also contains references to	at the following website: Secu	irity Report - http://po	lice.ucr.ed	du/clery/clery.html. The report of	ontains a su	mmary of crimes

University and campus policies concerned with criminal activity and security on campus. Printed copies of the Report are available upon request from the University of California, Riverside, Police Department; 3500 Canyon Crest Drive, Riverside, CA 92521 or by telephone at (951) 827-5222.

The University of California is Tobacco-Free. Smoking, the use of smokeless tobacco products, e-cigarettes, and unregulated nicotine products will be strictly prohibited.

This position may be subject to a background check. Any convictions will be evaluated to determine if they directly relate to the responsibilities and requirements of the position. Having a conviction history will not automatically disqualify an applicant from being considered for employment.

Authorization

☐ I have read the above disclosures. By checking this box and by signing this supplemental application, I certify that all statements on this application are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. If employed, I understand that any misrepresentation, falsification, or omission of facts may be grounds for disqualification or separation. Furthermore, I authorize the University of California to verify the information on this form and any other materials that I have submitted as part of the application process and to contact my references if I become a final candidate for the position(s).

Applicant's Signature

Date