SOE QUALITATIVE RESEARCH WORKSHOP

Calling all SOE graduate students! Are you looking for an open and collaborative space to work through the hurdles that come with the qualitative research process?

SOE graduate students who have completed the qualitative research course series are invited to register for this 2 hour in-person workshop led by Dr. Alice Lee. This workshop is intended for doctoral students looking to receive feedback on their personal projects wherever they are in their research journey. Please register by Friday, January 13th so we may prepare snacks and refreshments accordingly!

Tuesday, January 17, 2023 @ 12 pm Location: SPROUL 1215
