

Teaching Assistant Development Program Winter 2023 Workshops

Hacking iEval and Responding to Student Evaluations

Thursday, January 19, from 1:00 - 1:50 PM

Learn how to hack iEval while improving your students' learning experiences. We will discuss ways to combat bias and strategies such as creating anonymous surveys in Weeks 1 and 4 for assessing student needs and concerns. Location: Zoom.

Roundtable for TAs in STEM

Wednesday, January 25, from 2:00 - 2:50 PM

Build your teaching community! Join a roundtable led by your peers as we share experiences, discuss tips for success, and troubleshoot challenges. Location: Zoom.

Meaningfully Integrating Technology into Your Classroom

Monday, February 6, from 11:00 - 11:50 AM

Join this hybrid in-person and Zoom workshop to learn how tools such as discussion boards, polls, collaborative annotations, and Gradescope can help increase student participation and support learning outcomes. Location: LFSC 1425 and Zoom.

Applying the UC DEI Rubric as a TA (co-sponsored XCITE/TADP)

Thursday, March 2, from 11:30 AM - 12:50 PM (80 minutes)

This hybrid workshop is an opportunity for Teaching Assistants (TAs) to learn how to apply Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion strategies in their teaching and how to be inclusive of student needs in their course design and facilitation. In-person attendees must register by February 10 for free lunch in the XCITE Commons. Virtual attendees must register for the Zoom link.

DEI Workshop with GSA DIAL

Date and Time: To Be Determined

Learn to transform any classroom into a more equitable and inclusive space. Location: TBD.

To view registration directions specific to each workshop, visit:
<https://tadp.ucr.edu/resources/workshops>

Questions? Email tadp@ucr.edu

