

Image credit: New York Times

Impacted Grants Panel: how our research has been affected and what we are doing to address the impacts

Time: April 6, 2026 3:30pm-5pm

Location: Orbach Library Room 240 and Zoom (registration required):

<https://ucr.zoom.us/j/92204549757?pwd=HxcwTRZhEkuLlropdOB5YtjeYgC0tp.1>

Speakers:

Kalina Michalska (Associate Professor of Psychology, CHASS)

Michelle Porche (Professor In-Residence of Internal Medicine, SOM)

Ian Wheeldon (Professor of Chemical and Environmental Engineering, BCOE)

Nawa Sugiyama (Associate Professor of Anthropology, CHASS)

Moderators:

Dana Simmons (Society, Environment, and Health Equity)

Carolyn Rasmussen (Botany and Plant Sciences)

Schedule:

Introduction: Dana Simmons (5 minutes)

Impacted grants panel speakers: 12 minutes per person, with Q and A afterwards

Questions and Answers: Directed to individual speakers 20 minutes

Summary and action plan: Carolyn Rasmussen and Dana Simmons (10 minutes)

After the panel, we will continue the discussion at the Barn.

This panel is organized and supported by the Riverside Faculty Association, a volunteer dues-supported organization composed of faculty in support of faculty. UCRFA Website

