

Department of Political Science

CAREER WORKSHOPS

State and Local Government: Career Options for Political Science Majors

A degree in political science is not just about preparing students for law school. This workshop is designed to introduce students to the many career opportunities available to political science majors in local and state government.

The speakers for this week are all UCR political science alumni working in local and state government.

- ❖ Rob Field, City Manager, City of San Bernardino
- ❖ Andrea Mares, Board Assistant, Riverside County Third District Supervisor
- ❖ Cody Garman, English Teacher at Alliance College-Ready Schools
- ❖ Trelynd Bradley, Deputy Director of Sustainable Freight and Supply Chain Development, State of California
- ❖ Natalie Garcia, Legislative Assistant for California Assemblymember Reggie Jones-Sawyer
- ❖ Christopher Ferguson, Program Budget Manager, California Department of Finance

This workshop will be held in-person and via Zoom. Pizza and refreshments will be available to those who choose to attend in-person. If you have questions, please email us: adam.hobbs@email.ucr.edu.

TIME:

Friday, October 14, 2022 12:00 – 1:00 pm

LOCATION

Watkins – Room 2145

ZOOM DETAILS:

Meeting ID: 946 9411 2927

Passcode : PScareers

<https://ucr.zoom.us/j/94694112927?pwd=SXZLdWxLaHhrY0tyK0xlWHNXcnNBQT09>