

The

Barricelli Memorial

Grant for graduate research

Honoring the late Dr. Jean-Pierre Barricelli, former chair of Comparative Literature and Languages at UCR, the endowment now provides a full Dissertation Quarter Grant of $15,000 to cover tuition, fees, and stipend.

The Barricelli committee welcomes applications from students engaged in innovative comparative humanities work across fields such as literature, the arts, law, and the sciences.

Applications, with all materials sent to barricelli@ucr.edu, must include:

- A letter of up to three pages (c. 1250-1500 words) describing the dissertation research project and its relevance to the Barricelli Grant. The letter should include a discussion of the stage of writing, research plan, and timetable for dissertation completion.
- A current CV

Connie Samaras, Spaceport America
2010, Color Photograph, UCR Arts

Applications due on Monday, April 17, 2023

