

JESSE DRISCOLL

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
CHAIR OF GLOBAL LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE
UC SAN DIEGO

UKRAINE'S UNNAMED WAR

The roots of the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022 trace back to the revolutionary events of 2013–2015. "Ukraine's Unnamed War: Before the Russian Invasion of 2022" argues that Russia, before and after seizing Crimea, was reacting to events it could not control. The Kremlin sent troops only to areas of Ukraine where it knew it would face little resistance (Eastern Donbas), and the end result was a ragged military ceasefire that neither Ukrainians or Russians believed was just. Anchored in a simple model of domestic Ukrainian politics, this book traces efforts by the Kremlin to shape those domestic politics with military threats and coercion -- and how Ukrainians have adapted their institutions to the threat from its Russian neighbor.

TIME

Monday, April 24, 2023
12:00PM-1:20PM

LOCATION

Skye Hall 173

ZOOM DETAILS

Meeting ID: 940 2382 3997

Passcode : 875598

<https://ucr.zoom.us/j/94023823997>