

David Pion-Berlin Award

FUNDING FOR GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH IN LATIN AMERICA

Unlock Your Potential: Research in Latin America Awaits:

Dr. David Pion-Berlin is a Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Political Science at the University of California, Riverside. His work has shaped the study of civil-military relations, human rights, political violence, security, and defense in comparative politics. In recognition of his research interests and his goal of advancing graduate research, the award provides graduate students with up to $1,500 to aid in conducting research in Comparative Politics and Latin America.

Up to $1,500 for PhD Political Science students who have passed comprehensive exams. Research must focus on comparative politics and be relevant to Latin America.

Go to <https://politicalscience.ucr.edu/financial-support> for more details.

Apply by October 31st! Send applications to diego.esparza@ucr.edu
Award Announcement November 21st