

2024 EATON SYMPOSIUM ON SPECULATIVE FICTION

Saturday, May 25th

9 AM to 3 PM

HYBRID (Online & In-Person)

After a decade-long hiatus we're soft launching the return of the Eaton Conference, where science fiction/fantasy scholars and creatives can share their research and artistry with others in the field. Join us for a one-day symposium where graduate & undergraduate students will present their work on speculative fiction and the archive.

Free and open to the public!

For schedule & more info: bit.ly/Eaton2024

HMNSS 2212

Zoom Link

Co-Sponsored by the UCR Center for Ideas & Society, UCR CHASS Dean's Office, UCR Department of English, and UCR SFCS program; and in collaboration with UCR Special Collections & University Archives, UCR Department of Media & Cultural Studies, and UCR AMMP program