

OCTOBER IS NATIONAL ARCHIVES MONTH!

Join us for an Archives Fair

UCR undergraduate and graduate students are invited to give poster presentations at the second annual Inland Empire Archives Fair on Tuesday, October 8, 2024. Hosted under the iconic arches of the Rivera Library, the Archives Fair is geared towards raising awareness of local archives and special collections materials across the Inland Empire.

Posters should focus on research or related work utilizing primary sources/archives, including archives at UCR or from other repositories.

To register, please scan this QR code:

A stipend for poster printing and a box lunch will be provided to eligible students. Students must stay with their poster for a minimum of 1 hour of the event.
