

CAMPUS COLLECTIVE AND MENTOR PROGRAMS

Campus Collective		Mentor Programs
Matched through an online platform <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ paired based on shared interest by major, academic/career interest, cultural background 	Matching	Manual matching by program coordinators. Students join based on college learning communities or affinity groups
Provides a variety of communication <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Text messaging ◦ Phone call ◦ Video chat ◦ Email ◦ In-person 	Communication	Communication methods may vary, could include in-person mentorship
Offers flexibility in scheduling and communication	Flexibility	Scheduling and communication may be less flexible
Overall academic and social support	Support	Support may be focused on certain academic levels or affinities

 Campus Collective

 Center for Undergraduate Research & Engaged Learning

Remember that you have the option to join both the Campus Collective program and other mentorship programs. Participating in multiple mentorship programs can be a great way to develop a strong support network.