

Attracting Butterflies and Birds to Gardens

Featuring the Riverside Master Gardeners Program
Thursday, August 13, 2026
1:00 - 2:00 p.m. Pacific Time via Zoom

Description

One of the greatest rewards of gardening is watching birds, butterflies, and other wildlife make themselves at home in your garden. Join Laura Simpson to discover simple ways to create a welcoming habitat that attracts and supports Southern California's native birds, butterflies, and other beneficial creatures.
